The selection of your Memorial

Following a funeral, the selection of a Memorial for your loved one is probably one of the biggest decisions you will need to make and this decision is being made at a time of great stress and emotion. Most families only select a Memorial once in their life-time and it can be a daunting task. The last thing you need, is a sales person using high pressure sales techniques. What you do need and should expect, is a Company, who not only knows the rules and regulations of all Cemeteries, but will guide you professionally and sympathetically through the selection process.

Our Members exercise a Duty of Care to all our Clients.

Why you should choose a Member of our Association

Our Association has a strict set of rules / regulations by which every Member must abide, plus offering our Members

1. Free access to relevant Australian Standards and Industry Technical Magazines
2. We offer support to our Members on cemetery regulations, WH&S advice, technical compliance and much more.
3. Our Association is the focal point for the General Public and Industry
4. We encourage and promote a professional Monumental Industry
5. Provide Government and Industry liaison support for our Members
6. We assist with Industry strategic planning
7. Provide our Members with business support and share industry knowledge and expertise
8. Our Members will always respect your personal choices and have regard for the diversity of your beliefs, religious and cultural practices.

Australian Standards

Our Industry has adopted the Australian Standard AS 4204 - 2019 "Headstones and Cemetery Monuments". Our Members will build your Memorial to a minimum of these Standards and our Association constantly monitors the quality of completed work.

Please, don't put at risk the quality of your Memorial!

Support

Occasionally things don't go to plan. Our Association is here to assist you in discussions with your Mason.
